

Please do not allow the banks to contact us. If you allow them more will try to make changes and pretty soon this list won't mean a thing.

With the amount of calls I was getting I would consider it harassment and most of those people were rude and wouldn't take no for an answer. We shouldn't have to be subjected to that in our own homes. Thank you